SWIMMING POOLS

With 19 large outdoor pools, six indoor pools, and seven walk-to-learn pools for young children, there's no reason not to join in the fun! Most pools will be open to the public six days a week beginning June 22. Until then, there will be weekend openings at designated pools across the city, beginning Memorial Day. A complete listing of pool locations, operating hours, and fees can be found at www.summeryouthprogram.dc.gov or by calling 211 Answers, Please! at (202) 463-6211.

HOW TO REGISTER FOR CAMPS

DC Parks and Recreation accepts registration for all camping programs on a first come, first served basis. If you would like to enroll your child for multiple sessions, please enroll him or her for those sessions during registration. Enrolling your child into one session does not automatically mean that he or she is enrolled for the entire summer.

To register for camps, please visit or call one of the RecWare registration sites listed below. You can also visit our website and register on-line at www.dpr.dc.gov. From this website, click on "Summer 2005 Programs" and follow the step-by-step instructions.

Since 2002, the DC Children and Youth Investment Trust Corporation (CYITC) has used public and private dollars to support community and faith-based programs in providing enrichment opportunities for children and youth in the District of Columbia. CYITC selects programs based upon a competitive process to meet the needs of the city's children and youth. Our grantees' programs bridge learning from one school year to the next, as well as provide youth with opportunities to reach their fullest potential. We encourage you to take advantage of the programs offered by our grantees during the summer.
